

European Parliament election

6 June 2024

Thursday 6 June the election for the European Parliament will be held. By voting, you help determine who becomes a member of the European Parliament. By voting in the election for the European Parliament, you influence the decisions of the European Parliament.

What do you need in order to vote?

Your voting pass. You will receive your voting pass in the post no later than Thursday 23 May.

Proof of identity. The following are considered valid proof of ID: all passports, identity cards and driving licences from EU countries and from Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway; or a passport or identity card from Switzerland. If your identity document has expired, the expiry date must be less than 5 years ago.

If your voting pass is lost or damaged, please contact your municipality and request a new one. This can be done in writing until Monday 3 June, or in person at your local municipal office until Wednesday 5 June 12.00 p.m.

Where to vote

To find the polling station nearest to you, visit your municipality's website or waarismijnstemlokaal.nl. Shortly before the elections, you will also be sent an overview of all polling stations in the post.

Accessibility of polling stations

If you have a question about the accessibility of a polling station, you can visit waarismijnstemlokaal.nl. There, you can find information about which polling stations have facilities for people with a visual impairment or wheelchair users. You can also ask the municipality about this.

If you want to vote in a different municipality, you must apply for a voter's pass. You can do so in writing until Monday 3 June, or in person at your local municipal office until Wednesday 5 June 12.00 p.m.

When can you vote?

Thursday 6 June 2024
from 7.30 a.m. to 9.00 p.m.

Who can you vote for?

On the website of the Electoral Council, you'll find information about the political parties and candidates participating in the elections.

In the run-up to the elections a list of candidates will be sent to you at your home address. You can read about the plans of the parties on their websites.

Are you unable to get to the polling station?

If you are unable to get to the polling station, you can authorise someone else to vote for you. You can do this in two ways:

By transferring your voting pass to them
Fill in the back of your voting pass. Give your voting pass to the person you would like to vote for you. You should also give them a copy of your identity document. This can also be a photo on your mobile phone or tablet. Make sure that the information can be clearly read.

By written proxy

For this, you need to request a form from your municipality. Both you and the person who will be voting for you need to complete the form. Return the form to the municipality no later than Monday 3 June.
